- NRA "Agency Affiliation" is required of any agency or organization wishing to take advantage of the NRA "Law Enforcement Lesson Plan & Course of Fire Review & Registration" program. An agency must also employ a certified NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor who must sign off on any lesson plans and/or courses of fire submitted through this program.
- Recognizing the importance of documented training and qualification, the NRA's Law Enforcement Division offers high quality and professional looking "Training Certificates" and "Qualification Certificates" for sale to its "Agency Affiliated" members. These certificates are available for use in conjunction with an organizations NRA "Approved & Registered" lesson plan(s) and/or course(s)-of-fire. Certificates may be purchased directly from the NRA's Program Materials Website at <http://materials.nrahq.org>.
- NRA "Agency Affiliation" is a requirement of every instructors' organization who is not otherwise employed by the U.S. Military or a Federal, State, County or Municipal SWORN law enforcement agency.
- NRA "Agency Affiliation" is a requirement of any organization wishing to conduct or host NRA sanctioned Police Pistol Combat Tournaments (Approved, Registered, State Championships and Regional's). NRA membership is no longer required of individual competitors wishing to compete in NRA PPC Competitions.

By signing this application, your organization/agency does hereby apply for "Affiliation" with the National Rifle Association of America (NRA). In making this application, the members of this organization have read, understood individually and collectively and agree to subscribe to the purposes and objects of the National Rifle Association as set forth in the Association bylaws. We also certify that the conduct of this organization will not be contrary to the purposes, policies, or image of the National Rifle Association.
