- NRA "Agency Affiliation" is required of any agency or organization wishing to take advantage of the NRA "Law Enforcement Lesson Plan & Course of Fire Review & Registration" program. An agency must also employ a certified NRA Law Enforcement Firearm Instructor who must sign off on any lesson plans and/or courses of fire submitted through this program.
- Recognizing the importance of documented training and qualification, the NRA's Law Enforcement Division offers high quality and professional looking "Training Certificates" and "Qualification Certificates" for sale to its "Agency Affiliated" members. These certificates are available for use in conjunction with an organizations NRA "Approved & Registered" lesson plan(s) and/or course(s)-of-fire. Certificates may be purchased directly from the NRA's Program Materials Website at <http://materials.nrahq.org>.

NRA "Agency Affiliation": Public (City, county, state, federal and U.S. Military) law enforcement are encouraged to join, but not required. Agency Affiliation IS REQUIRED for non-public law enforcement firearm instructors (Licensed to be armed private security, Nuclear Security, etc.).

By signing this application, your organization/agency does hereby apply for "Affiliation" with the National Rifle Association of America (NRA). In making this application, the members of this organization have read, understood individually and collectively and agree to subscribe to the purposes and objects of the National Rifle Association as set forth in the Association bylaws. We also certify that the conduct of this organization will not be contrary to the purposes, policies, or image of the National Rifle Association.
